Ron Salter is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a Chartered Arbitrator, a Fellow of the Australian Centre for International Arbitration, and when previously a member of the Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia, was accredited as a Grade 1 arbitrator. He is also a member of arbitration panels operated by a number of institutions such as the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, the Singapore International Arbitration Centre, the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration, the China Maritime Arbitration Commission, and the Maritime Law Association of Australia and New Zealand.

He is presently a director of the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA), a former councillor and director of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Australian Branch), and has served as a national councillor and director of the Institute of Arbitrators & Mediators Australia (IAMA), and as a director of the Melbourne Commercial Arbitration & Mediation Centre. He is a former member of the executive council of Comité Maritime International, and is presently a member of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers. In 2013/2014, he served as chairman of the organising committee for the 10th anniversary conference of the Asia Pacific Regional Arbitration Group (APRAG).

Ron regularly acts as arbitrator or mediator, both domestically and internationally, in a variety of commercial disputes, including shipping, aviation, insurance, trade, commodities, partnerships, travel, property, professional liability, and infrastructure projects. As a former lawyer, he has been listed in four separate Euromoney Guides to the World's Leading Lawyers (shipping and maritime, litigation, insurance and reinsurance, and commercial arbitration), as well as in publications such as Who's Who Legal, the International Who's Who of Shipping Lawyers, the Asia Pacific Legal 500, Best Lawyers, and Asialaw Leading Lawyers.
